The Channel Group, LLC and Its Affiliate, BioMed Transition Partners, Welcomes Walter Flamenbaum, M.D., Who Has Joined Our Firm as a Managing Partner

Walter Flamenbaum, M.D. was a Founding Partner of Paul Capital Healthcare Funds, which have invested over $1 billion in forty investments, and is currently a Partner Emeritus at Paul Capital. While at Paul Capital, he actively participated in the majority of the Fund's investments and was responsible for the development of the diverse team of healthcare and financial investment professionals, allowing for the Fund's development and success.

Dr. Flamenbaum's broad-based medical knowledge and experience provides The Channel Group with a unique resource for the development of healthcare companies. Dr. Flamenbaum has 40 years of healthcare experience, including the development and evaluation of pharmaceutical- and biotechnology-based drugs, medical devices, and diagnostics. During the 10 years prior to joining Paul Capital Partners in 1999, he had extensive experience in the licensing of healthcare product-related intellectual properties and the assessment of healthcare investing opportunities. He also founded a contract research organization, started a bio-medical company, and had senior management responsibilities in a biotechnology company. He is a member of the Board of Directors of OSE Pharma; Allergan Research Corporation; Norphan Pharmaceuticals, Inc.; Uman Pharma Inc.; and Heart Metabolics Limited.

Dr. Flamenbaum is board certified in internal medicine, nephrology, and clinical pharmacology and was a professor of medicine at the Mt. Sinai School of Medicine and Tufts University School of Medicine. He served in the U.S. Army at the Walter Reed Army Institute of Research and the Walter Reed Army Medical Center. Dr. Flamenbaum earned a B.A. from Washington & Jefferson College and an M.D. from Columbia University's College of Physicians & Surgeons.
